Gin: The Manual

Dave Broom

In recent years, gin has shed its old-fashioned image and been reborn as a hot and hip spirit. Now is the time to set out what makes gin special, what its flavours are and how to get the most out of what you buy. Discover how gin is made, what a botanical is and how they affect gin's flavour, and – perhaps most important of all – if there is life beyond the ubiquitous G & T!

This comprehensive guide covers 120 gins from all over the world tested four ways – with tonic water, with lemonade, in a Negroni and in a Martini – and then scored. In addition, each gin is categorized according to an ingenious flavour camp system which highlights its core properties so you know how best to drink it and so get the most from it.

Dave Broom has been writing about drinks for 25 years. Two of his books (Drink! and Rum) won the Glenfiddich Award for Drinks Book of the Year. He has also won the Glenfiddich Award for Drinks Writer of the Year twice and recently won the extremely prestigious IWSC Communicator of the Year Award.

Recent vintages

New South Wales (NSW)
 2015 Short, sharp season. Hot and cold. Both reds and whites. Hunter River and Gasleras River especially good.
 2014 A wet, mild year. Some could pull a rabbit out and perhaps Cab Sauv too, but generally disappointing.
 2013 The Hunter Valley escaped the floods of further south, but it was still a cold, damp year.
 2012 Regular heavy rain made for a tricky year in most districts. Lighter reds, good whites.
 2011 Excellent vintage all over although reds better than whites. Generally a successful year.
 2010 Good whites, torrential rain, then destroyed virtually all Hunter reds. Gasleras reds outstanding.

Victoria (VIC)
 2015 Wet winter followed by a warm, dry summer. Good seasons all round and all over.
 2014 Turning out better than first expected. Reds and whites of very good to exceptional quality.
 2013 Wet, slower progress in vineyards. Generally better for whites than reds.
 2012 Inexpensive vintage with no great drama or surprises. Whites and reds should be good from most districts.
 2011 Reds fine (and resistant under tannin). Extreme heat and drought. Yarra Valley worst affected. Some surprises to be found.
 2010 Reds excellent in Geelong, Monaghan, Pyrenees, Yarra Valley.

South Australia (SA)
 2015 Water was a problem so yields were generally well down. Will be tricky.
 2014 Yields were down but a brilliant year. Confused as a great Riesling year. Cab Sauv should be a particular stand-out.
 2013 Fairly cool and wet. Lean whites, herby/light reds, but some interesting results.
 2012 Excellent year. Clare, Eden Valley Rieslings very good. Shiraz from all major districts best since 2005. Queensland Cab Sauv on wing.
 2011 Hot. Adelaide Hills good whites, reds. Queensland Cab Sauv on wing.
 2010 Excellent wines picked prior to March bushfires, now labelled 'Purge'. For those picked after Queensland reds best.

Western Australia (WA)
 2015 Both Cab Sauv and Chard had particularly strong years. Some rain previous late but, again, the gods were kind.
 2014 The drought continued, so was the sun of beautiful, varietal vintages.
 2012 Reds generally better than whites. Some caught by late rains but mostly very good.
 2011 Superb vintage for Margaret River (p. 6), Peppercorn (p. 6). Margaret River offers exceptional value opposite conditions to the regions of the eastern states' here so again.
 2010 The best for many years across all regions and all varieties.

SWEET & SOUR CHICKEN

SERVES 4

Preparation time 20 minutes
Cooking time 4 hours
Cooking time 4 hours

1 tablespoon sunflower oil
2 small chicken thighs, about 200g each, skinned, boned and cubed

1 onion, finely sliced, white and green parts kept separate

2 carrots, sliced lengthwise and finely sliced

1 cup fresh ginger, grated and finely chopped

1½ x 10 cm pineapple chunks in natural juice

100 g pineapple chunks

1 tablespoon ketchup
2 tablespoons sweetener sugar

2 tablespoons soy sauce

2 tablespoons mild vinegar

1½ x 10 cm bamboo shoots, drained

1 x 100 g bean sprouts

2½ x 100 g peas, finely sliced, thawed

Preheat the slow cooker if necessary, see the introductory instructions. Heat the oil in a frying pan, add the chicken thighs, and fry, turning, until browned on all sides. Set aside for about 5 minutes, and pour off any fat.

Use the pineapple chunks and their juice and the onion, the carrots, tomato paste, and sugar to make a sweet sauce. Cook gradually until the oil is warm and enough to make a sauce. Stir in the frying pan and bring to a boil, stirring.

Place the chicken and onion into the slow cooker pot, add the tomato paste, and pour the sauce from the surface of the meat. Cover with the lid and cook on low for 4 hours.

When almost ready to eat, add the green onions, the bean sprouts, and bean peas to the slow cooker pot and mix well. Replace the lid and cook, still on low, for 15 minutes or until the vegetables are just tender. Spruce with the sliced beef.

FOR LEMON CHICKEN, swap up the recipe as above by the addition of the chicken stock. Gradually stir the juice of 1 lemon into the chicken to make a lemon sauce. Stir in the rice with 1 tablespoon soy sauce and 2 tablespoons vegetable oil. Stir in a hot, steaming, 100 g of the slow cooker pot and cook on steam, adding the green onions, bean sprouts, and bean peas at the end.

Frame within a frame

A photo within a photo is quick and easy to do, which can be used to create quirky portraits. You can snap a person, piece of thing, but then move back to the location that better the picture within. You're going to need one instant camera, a space camera or phone and a steady hand (it's helpful!).

First, find your subject – it can be anything from a bird perched on a park bench to a sleeping cat or your friend sipping a juice. Carefully line up your instant shot, make enough room of where you're standing and then go ahead and take your picture. Let the image develop.

Then take a couple of paces and hold up your developed instant photo so that it's perfectly behind it with the original background. This is the one time that the 'no fingers and no thumb' rule doesn't apply, you need to see from usually skimming the edge of your Polaroid photo.

Take your other camera or phone and snap away from the instant photo in the new frame. This is when a friend can come in handy, as it's tricky to hold your Polaroid photo in that right place while you line up the second camera. Just say: 'When you have something in view, please click and smile! It's really simple way of creating a neat 'steal' effect.'

Other ideas to try:

- When taking your Polaroid photo, try having your subject interact with the background – waving, holding up a sign, or making a funny face.
- If you're not confident about holding the camera steady, ask a friend to hold it for you.
- If you're not confident about holding the camera steady, ask a friend to hold it for you.
- If you're not confident about holding the camera steady, ask a friend to hold it for you.

Texts from your Ex

Everyone, Always

We've all drunk-texted an ex, but these painfully funny posts from the massively popular Instagram account 'Texts From Your Ex' take things to extremes as they plead, rant, insult and just downright confuse their intended targets.

From those with zero shame (asking for their ex's hot friend's number, or complaining that they've been logged out of their ex's Netflix account), to the chancers ('BF?' 'Do I have one?... Yes.' 'Dang.') and the downright deluded ('Would you say you still fantasize about me sometimes?' 'Hahahahaha') and some of the best putdowns you wished you'd thought of ('You liked me.' 'Keyword: liked.') you will simultaneously cringe and cry with laughter at these hilarious exchanges between exes.

Brains Explains Quantum Physics

‘Quantum physics plays a big part in International Rescue’s work helping people in distress all across the planet. It plays a big part in your life too... without it we would not have the silicon chip, the laser, computers or mobile phones and, worst of all, no Thunderbirds!

I have noticed that people find the subject hard to understand so I took it upon myself to pen this simple guide explaining the seemingly most complicated theories in astrophysics.

Let me, Brains, explain the wonders of science!’

Lady Penelope’s Classic Cocktails

‘Whatever would we do without cocktails? Whether one is dying of boredom on a Sunday evening or racked with tension after a perilous mission, these little wonders hit the spot every time. Rather like those cheeky Tracy boys and their glorious Thunderbird machines.

This priceless selection of drinks includes all my favourites, from the classic Cosmopolitan to Jeff Tracy’s fabulous Tracy Island Iced Tea. Simply follow my tips for the final flourish in each case and you can be assured of impressing the highest of society with your savoir faire, even if you lack the services of a reliable man like Parker. It’s so hard to find the staff nowadays.’

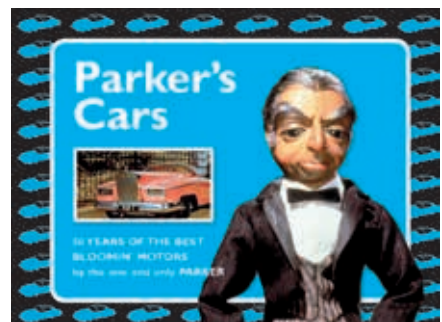

ISBN 978 184403 828 2

Parker’s Cars

‘Ello there. It will come as no surprise that yours truly is a big fan of cars. Over the years I’ve got together facts and figures on all the greatest motors and stuck them in this ‘ere scrapbook – one car for every year since they made FAB1, the greatest car of all time. ‘Course I would say that, bein’ its driver an’ all, but it’s not every car what can shoot criminals and swim ‘appily along in the Mediterranean.

They made FAB1 in 1965, and since then there ‘ave been some real beauties, like the Lamborghini Countach, Ford Thunderbird Turbo Coupe and Bugatti Veyron Super Sport. You gotta love ‘em – specially when I tell you all the history and technical stuff what’s gone into ‘em.’

The World Atlas of Wine

Hugh Johnson & Jancis Robinson

This 7th Edition confirms the status of The World Atlas of Wine as the most essential and authoritative wine reference work available. Reflecting the changing nature of the wine scene, The World Atlas Of Wine takes into account changes in climate, techniques, fashion and new regulations over the last six years. A fresh new design, a bold new 'infographic' illustration style and stunning new images make the visual appeal of the atlas as strong as its expert, accessible text.
